

As a patriotic citizen, I am concerned about the implications of Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the presidential election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This decision is far outside the public interest of a democratic nation.

I see only two possible remedies to this situation that preserve democracy as we know it: either the broadcasting company offers the Kerry campaign for president equal air time, and equal force with their stations; or the FCC must stop Sinclair from airing the documentary. Thank you.
